magazine & blog

design being authentic

slanted is on the spot

we are publishers of a blog and magazine: we travel to cities, visit the hottest studios, interview great designers & entrepreneurs, talk to geeks and artists, check their secret spots.

slanted connects people we link opinion leaders to the design scene slanted is global covering international culture and design—from NY to Warsaw.

slanted goes beyond design

we share our philosophy:
be globally minded,
tollerant, and curious.
